My trip to [redacted] was extremely helpful. The briefings and tours which you provided had the proper balance between overview and detail, and your description of [redacted] has allowed me to better understand how my interests relate to your organization. I was especially grateful for [redacted] presentation on your [redacted] Technology Division and for his very descriptive discussion of those activities which are of special interest to me.

Please pass my thanks on to all of those individuals who were involved in preparing for my visit; their efforts are appreciated.

Sincerely,

George Bush
